- Not specified in the RFP
- Certifications
- Not specified in the RFP
- Affidavits
- Section 4 (Forms and Affidavits) is referenced, specific affidavit requirements are not listed in the provided pages.

Risks and Critical Considerations

- High-risk requirements
- Strict requirement for electronic submission via Demandstar only; no acceptance of courier, in-person, fax or telegraphic submissions. The City disclaims responsibility for computer malfunctions, creating a risk of late or unaccepted submissions.
- Compliance risks
- Failure to include the mandatory cover page information may result in a bid being deemed non-responsive with no protest rights. Cone of Silence restrictions may limit communications; bidders who obtain solicitation outside official channels may miss amendments.
- Potential proposal challenges
- Not specified in the RFP beyond strict submission controls and potential for missed amendments if not registered/obtaining the solicitation through Demandstar or Procurement Department.

Important Insights

- Key observations for proposal teams
- Use Demandstar.com for submission and consider registering to avoid missing amendments. Ensure all required cover page items are present. Ensure signatures by an authorized officer and notarization where required. Follow the 8 1/2" x 11" typed format and submit well before the deadline given the City's non-responsibility for technical issues.
- Notable opportunities
- Not specified in the RFP
- Important strategic considerations
- Prepare for a bid validity period of 180 days. Anticipate that award is contingent upon execution of a contract and potential City Commission approval. Ensure compliance with Cone of Silence rules and procurement submission protocols to avoid disqualification.
